The UNDER-ONE-SKY CONCERT AND AUCTION is happening on May 25th, 2019. This event is a significant fundraiser for these specific community programs that support seniors, people with developmental disabilities and families in need: L'Arche for people with developmental disabilities, Nelson House for safe shelter of women and children who are being abused, Cornerstone Housing for Women who are homeless, Refuge NOW for refugee sponsorship, Centre 454 community center programs for people who live in poverty, and The Glebe Centre serving seniors for more than 130 years. This concert is a rare opportunity to hear internationally-acclaimed, Ottawa-born violinist, Kerson Leong, play a unique variety of repertoire accompanied by his mother, Tu Mach (piano), and Julien Bisailon (guitar). We hope you will be astonished and deeply moved by the energy and expressiveness of this young virtuoso. You can help by inviting others to the concert, by putting up a poster, and by sharing our concert information with your network of friends and colleagues:
